Reasons for allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's claimed invention distinguished over the prior art for the following reasons. The claims are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the references, either alone or in combination, discloses or renders obvious the method for assigning an information network address which is an identification name of specific information or an object and non-uniquely specifies a host holding the specific information or the object, where if one host holds plural pieces of information, the host has a plurality of information network addresses and if multiple hosts have identical information, the hosts have identical information network addresses, and where said information network address unit identifies another host accessible to the user and containing the specific information if the host becomes inaccessible to the user during transfer of information.
